2020 has been a year which has had a profound effect on everyone. During the COVID lockdown - and since - everyone has had their frustrations, their losses, their sadness, their fears ... but also unexpected moments of light as we discovered new things in the world around us, found new interests and learned to appreciate more the love of friends and family. Between April and June, Elizabeth Adams of the International School asked writers of all backgrounds, from high-school students to working professionals in Luxembourg, to come up with short, 5 to 10-minute pieces reflecting their experience of the lockdown.

The result is the CORONAVIRUS CHRONICLES - a collection of sketches covering the sorrows of families being separated, the shock of a loved one testing positive, the fear of catching the virus, the frustrations of working in the health service ...and the ever-present annoyance of working on "zoom". A mixture of scenes and monologues, of comic observations and sad reflections these plays show a cross-section in the life of a year which has changed the whole world.

With: Elizabeth Adams, Kim Birel, Bjørn Clasen, Sabrina Fernandez, Eloise Heger-Hedloy, Cassandra Köhler, June Lowery, Johan Maggiore, Helena O'Hare, Lina Peller, Tessy Stein & Lindsay Wegleitner Directed by Tony & Ferelith Kingston
